

JOB OFFER

Seoul, 15th April 2019

The French School of Seoul is looking to recruit a teacher in American Language and Literature to teach in the middle school's American International Section.

Position available from Thursday 29th August 2019.

Job description

The teacher will teach the American Language and Literature program in all middle school grades.

He will have to :

- design and plan the curriculum of the American International Section's official school program
- manage the class and take into account the students' diversity.
- work closely with the school academic team and specifically with the International Section's teacher in History and Geography
- participate in discussions with the academic and educational team, class councils and all meetings with parents organized by the school.

He will contribute to the implementation of the school project.

Employment type : 1 year contract, renewable once for 1 year, permanent contract possible after 2 years.

Working time : 16 hours per week.

Profile

Required skills (non-mandatory) :

- American english native speaker
- Required qualifications to teach American Language and Literature in school

Preferred skills (non-mandatory) :

- Knowledge of the French Language
- Knowledge of French Schools' International Section Curriculum and of the French Option Internationale du Baccalauréat (OIB)
- Experience in a French School / American International Section.

Application

The application must include :

- A resume
- A cover letter
- A copy of the identity card or of the korean alien card
- An extract from policy records
- A copy of diplomas and certifications

Please send your application to recrutement@lfseoul.org.

Deadline : Sunday 28st April 2019.